

JAMES BROWN
DANCE PARTY

PRESS QUOTE:

"What happens when you take all things awesome and put them in one place? The James Brown Dance Party happens!!!" -The Huffington Post

BIO/DESCRIPTION:

There is no experience like the James Brown Dance Party. There are plenty of James Brown Tributes that offer stale versions of James Brown songs with they typical James Brown impersonators, but there is only one James Brown Dance Party.

The high energy performances offer an authentic experience that respects the legacy of James Brown while pushing the boundaries of funk forward by incorporating both musicians that toured with James Brown and distinguished musicians from around the world that have legacies of their own.

The result is an all out dance party with musicians and fans alike sharing in the love of James Brown and the booty shakin' effects of the funkier music ever written.

Musicians that have joined the James Brown Dance Party have included JB legends including Fred Wesley, Clyde Stubblefield and Fred Thomas while incorporating well known musicians from bands that have included Vulfpeck, Lettuce, Kool & The Gang, Trombone Shorty, The Dap Kings, The Vanguard, Bootsy Collins Band, Trey Anatasio Band, Snarky Puppy, Odesza, Big Gigantic, The Naughty Professor, George Porter Jr. of The Meters, and so many other great.